

August 2007

Mezzanine Management

Appointment of Two Investment Managers

Mezzanine Management, the mezzanine and private equity firm, announces two new hires; Luke Jones and Robin Thywissen. Luke is based in the London office and Robin will be based in the London office covering the French and German markets.

Luke Jones joined Mezzanine Management in June 2007. Prior to joining, Luke worked in Corporate Finance Advisory at Deloitte in London where he advised on a range of corporate and private equity transactions. Luke started his career at PricewaterhouseCoopers where he qualified as a Chartered Accountant. He graduated in 1998 from the University of Nottingham with a BSc Honours degree in Physics.

Prior to joining Mezzanine Management in 2007, Robin Thywissen spent 2 years in private equity with BNP Paribas investing in energy and commodities related companies in emerging markets. Robin also spent over 3 years in M&A in Frankfurt and Paris with BNP Paribas and ABN Amro where he worked on transactions in France, Germany, Belgium, and in the Netherlands in the chemicals, consumer goods and telecoms sectors. Robin is a graduate engineer from Paris National Institute of Telecoms (including one year at RWTH Aachen, Germany) and holds a Master in Finance from University of Paris-Dauphine.

Luke and Robin will be part of Mezzanine Management's 14 strong investment team who are currently investing capital from its latest fund, Mezzanine Management Fund IV.